

Collaborative Practice Agreement

Points to consider:

- Physician engagement
- Administrative engagement
- Pharmacist engagement

Overview

Collaborative practice agreements (CPAs) are a significant tool in the arsenal of the pharmacist to provide top-of-licensure services in the clinical and community setting. These agreements can provide meaningful structure and support to facilitate patient-centered collaborative care models.

Basic Foundational Elements

1. Requirements of the Board of Pharmacy
2. Parties to the agreement
3. Scope of Practice

What services could be extended or enhanced with a collaborative practice agreement?

What physician activity could be delegated appropriately to the pharmacist?

Scan this code for additional resources:

“

Collaborative practice agreements (CPAs) are used to create formal relationships between pharmacists and physicians or other providers that allow for expanded services the pharmacist can provide to patients and the healthcare team.

-APhA

”